

SOCIAL MEDIA JUMP-START PACKAGE

The Lucey Agency understands the intricacies of social media management and what makes the platforms tick. You've got to be equipped with the knowledge that will help your social media posts be seen, and your social media objectives met. We realize that most business owners feel that they can run their own social media campaigns, but few have the time, resources and insights to do so.

Let us help you get your social media off the ground. With our Social Media Jump-Start Package, we'll help you get the ball rolling:

- Creation of Facebook and Instagram business pages
- Links between your social media accounts and web properties
- Aesthetically-pleasing page design with optimized cover and profile images
- Industry-specific wording to maximize search results
- Three to four initial posts with full optimization
- Ad design, creation and management
- Follow relevant accounts across the board
- Follow requests sent to relevant pages
- Engagement with other pages as your page, enhancing organic growth

For more information about our Social Media Jump-Start Package, please email Tiffany at tiffany@luceyagency.com or call/text 303.618.9386. Get your social media up and running the right way. Give us a shout today.
